ORDER ADDING EXPRESS MAIL CONTRACT 14
TO THE COMPETITIVE PRODUCT LIST

(Issued March 7, 2013)

I. INTRODUCTION

The Postal Service seeks to add a new product identified as Express Mail Contract 14 to the competitive product list.¹ For the reasons discussed below, the Commission approves the Request.

¹ Request of the United States Postal Service to Add Express Mail Contract 14 to Competitive Product List and Notice of Filing (Under Seal) of Unredacted Governors' Decision, Contract, and Supporting Data, February 21, 2013 (Request).

II. BACKGROUND

On February 21, 2013, in accordance with 39 U.S.C. § 3642 and 39 C.F.R. § 3020.30 et seq., the Postal Service filed the Request, along with supporting documents. In the Request, the Postal Service asserts that Express Mail Contract 14 is a competitive product that establishes rates “not of general applicability” within the meaning of 39 U.S.C. § 3632(b)(3). Id. at 1. Among the supporting documents, the Postal Service included a copy of Governors’ Decision No. 11-6,² a contract related to the proposed new product, requested changes to the competitive product list, a statement supporting the Request, and a certification of compliance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a). In addition, the Postal Service submitted an application for non-public treatment of materials to maintain redacted portions of Governors’ Decision No. 11-6, the contract, customer-identifying information, and related financial information filed under seal. Request, Attachment F.³

On February 22, 2013, the Commission issued an order establishing the two dockets, appointing a Public Representative, and providing interested persons with an opportunity to comment.⁴

III. COMMENTS

The Public Representative filed comments on March 4, 2013.⁵ No other interested person submitted comments. The Public Representative states that he has reviewed the Request and supporting materials. Id. at 2. He believes that Express Mail Contract 14 should improve “the financial condition of the Postal Service and ratepayers in general” and benefit the contract partner. Id. He concludes that the instant contract complies with the requirements of title 39, United States Code, and should be approved. Id.

IV. COMMISSION ANALYSIS

The Commission has reviewed the Request, the instant contract, the supporting data filed under seal, and the Public Representative’s comments.

Product list requirements. The Commission’s statutory responsibilities when evaluating the Request include assigning Express Mail Contract 14 to either the market dominant or competitive product list. See 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(1); 39 C.F.R. § 3020.34. In addition, the Commission must consider the availability and nature of private sector enterprises engaged in delivering the product, the views of those who use the product, and the likely impact on small business concerns. See 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(3); 39 C.F.R. §§ 3020.32(f), (g), and (h).

The Postal Service asserts that it provides Express Mail service in a highly competitive market, that other shippers who provide similar services constrain its bargaining position, and that it can therefore neither raise prices nor decrease service, quality, or output without risking the loss of business to competitors. Request, Attachment D at 2. The Postal Service states that the contract partner supports the Request, that expedited shipping is widely available from private firms, and that the Postal Service is unaware of any small business concerns that could offer comparable services to the contract partner. Id. at 3.

Having considered the relevant statutory and regulatory requirements and the Postal Service’s supporting justification, the Commission finds that Express Mail Contract 14 is appropriately classified as competitive and is added to the competitive product list.

Cost considerations. Because Express Mail Contract 14 is a competitive product, the Postal Service must also show that the contract covers its attributable costs, contributes to the Postal Service's institutional costs, and does not cause any market dominant products to subsidize competitive products. 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a); 39 C.F.R. § 3015.5.

As part of its Request, the Postal Service submitted a certified statement that the contract complies with the requirements of 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a). Request, Attachment E. In addition, the Postal Service filed supporting revenue and cost data showing that the contract is expected to cover its costs. As part of its Annual Compliance Determination proceedings, the Commission will review the contract's financial performance for consistency with section 3633(a).

Other considerations. By its terms, the contract becomes effective the day after the date that the Commission issues all necessary regulatory approvals. Request, Attachment B at 4. The contract is scheduled to expire 3 years after the effective date, unless, among other things, either party terminates the contract with 30 days' written notice to the other party. Id.

If the instant contract is terminated prior to the scheduled expiration date, the Postal Service shall promptly notify the Commission.

Within 30 days after the instant contract terminates, the Postal Service shall file the annual (contract year) costs, volumes, and revenues disaggregated by weight and zone associated with the contract.

In conclusion, the Commission approves Express Mail Contract 14 as a new product. The revision to the competitive product list appears below the signature of this Order and is effective immediately.

V. ORDERING PARAGRAPHS

It is ordered:

1. Express Mail Contract 14 (MC2013-41 and CP2013-53) is added to the competitive product list as a new product under Negotiated Service Agreements, Domestic. The revision to the competitive product list appears below the signature of this Order and is effective immediately.
2. The Postal Service shall notify the Commission if the instant contract terminates prior to the scheduled expiration date as discussed in this Order.
3. Within 30 days after the instant contract terminates, the Postal Service shall file the annual (contract year) costs, volumes, and revenues disaggregated by weight and zone associated with the contract.
4. The Secretary shall arrange for publication in the Federal Register of an updated product list reflecting the change made in this Order.

By the Commission.

Shoshana M. Grove
Secretary
